The Alberta WCC Stands For:

RESPECT FOR ALBERTA'S TRADITIONS

- self-reliance
 - industry and hard work
 - individual freedom
 - charity
- (we would return "Kananaskis" to Albertans)
- FREE ENTERPRISE
- minimum taxation
 - minimum regulation
 - impartial government administration
- (this will allow Albertans to diversify the economy themselves)

BETTER GOVERNMENT

- reduce the cabinet from 30 to 20 members
- free the vote of the MLA
- give Albertans the right to referendum
- eliminate government interference in the administration of justice (i.e. Dial Mortgage)

Alberta Western Canada Concept Party

DO NOT CIRCULATE ~~PAMPHLET~~

FRED MARSHALL / 1986
EDMONTON CENTRE
AUTHORIZED BY FRED MARSHALL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

DEAR ALBERTANS,

Our party represents

The spirit that built Alberta

Courage, backbone, guts, hard work,
The love of freedom and justice.

These are the qualities and values

Which have formed our culture and moulded our heritage.

This spirit is the driving force of the Western Canada Concept Party-

The spirit of our pioneering forefathers who, in seventy-five years

Built a great province from a wilderness

Of prairie, lake, and forest.

We are their children-

Alberta is our inheritance and our heritage.

Only this spirit can secure our inheritance

And make certain that heritage for our children and our grandchildren.

The voice of Albertans is the voice of democracy.

The voice of Albertans must become

The guiding spirit of government

And allow our people, and our province

To become strong again.

Jack Ramsay

Jack Ramsay, Leader.

Alberta WCC - Policy Objectives

1. To encourage direct citizen participation in government by methods such as referendum, initiative, and recall.
2. To maintain the highest levels of government morality, accountability and efficiency.
3. To create an atmosphere favoring a healthy free-enterprise economy.
4. To withdraw government from areas best managed by the private sector.
5. To protect Alberta's economic interests within Canada.
6. To achieve the high level of urban and rural employment which will preserve small business and the family farm, and ensure the social and economic well-being of Albertans.
7. To promote self-reliance while helping those unable to help themselves.
8. To practice fair and simple taxation.
9. To protect the citizen's right to the enjoyment of private property.
10. To wisely use, conserve, and develop our province's resources.
