SOCIAL CREDIT STANDS FOR THE FOLLOWING FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES:

- The right of every citizen to choose his way of life, provided he does not interfere with the similar rights of others.
- b The establishment and preservation of justice and equity for all men.
- C The promotion of the system of free competitive individual enterprise and opposition to state socialism, totalitarianism and requirentation.
- d The highest standard of Christian morality in politics and government.

SOCIAL CREDIT PROPOSES ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL POLICIES WHICH WILL BUILD A PROSPEROUS, SECURE AND GREATER CANADA

- Q By mointaining sufficient money in circulation to insure expansion of production and consumption with safe-quards against inflation and defiction.
- By maintaining effective consumer purchasing power sufficient to make financially possible the distribution of all wanted production.
- C By a thorough revision of the whole Canadian taxation system. Those taxes that are restrictive to productive enterprise will be abolished or reduced as a stimulus to greater productive effort.

By the progressive reduction and eventual liquidation of public deht.

SOCIAL CREDIT IS THE ANSWER TO EXCESSIVE TAXATION, EXTRAVAGAINT GOVERNMENT AND THE DAILY FEARS OF A FEAST TO-FAMINE ECONOMY.

SOCIAL CREDIT OFFERS POSITIVE ACTION TO REVITALIZE CANADA'S INTERNAL ECONOMY

- Q By stimulating economic and industrial development to progressively raise living standards and provide opportunities for gainful employment.
- b By providing pensions for all aged and disabled citizens commensorate with Canada's ability to produce.
- C By fair and just recognition of War Veterans' contribution to Canada's security.
- Cl Through new Federal-Provincial financial arrangements to ensure each province adequate revenues to discharge fully its constitutional responsibilities.
- C By assuring home market and export markets for the products of our forms factories, mines, fisheries and lumber industries.
- By fostering and encouraging fust and harmonious labour-management relationships in the interests of both employee and employer and the Canadian people as a whole.

- By encouraging industrial enterprises to expand Canadian industry while at the same time protect the public against monopolies.
- h By encouraging every citizen to build and own his own home by providing for lower down payments and lower interest rates on housing loans.
- I By the maintenance of Canada's Military and Civil Defence forces at a strength adequate for the defence and security of Canada.

SOCIAL CREDIT PROPOSES A NEW AND PEALISTIC APPROACH TO THE PROBLEMS OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONSHIP AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE

- Q We are determined to maintain unimpaired Canada's sovereignty.
- b We respect the sovereignty of other nations.
- C We will foster co-operation with other nations for peace, international fusite and security.
- Q We will establish an international trade policy under which goods will be exchanged between nations on a basis of mutual advantage to all and through which the production of the world will be made available to feed and bless all huncounty.
